

Parent Covenant

Linville Hill Christian School recognizes the partnership it has with parents as we work together to educate each child. Parents who are committed to the school program are valued assets as we seek to fulfill our school's mission and vision statements. This covenant statement affirms your commitment to our school and its program. It also recognizes teachers' and support staff members' responsibility to partner with parents as we work together to provide a quality Christian education for all students.

Covenant Statement

As members of the Linville Hill Christian School community, we covenant to support our children and the school by:

1. Praying regularly for the school and its programs.
2. Meeting our financial obligations for tuition and fees as they are outlined on the tuition schedule. We understand the need to pay promptly so the school can operate as efficiently as possible.
3. Actively participating in the school's fundraising events by
 - Volunteering to work to make these events successful
 - Donating items as requested
 - Attending events and encouraging friends and neighbors to do the same
4. We recognize the value of direct involvement in the success of the school's program and the partnership needed between parents and teachers to provide a quality education. We will partner with Linville Hill Christian School staff members by:
 - Supporting our children as they grow academically, spiritually, socially, and emotionally
 - Attending Parent/Teacher Fellowship events
 - Attending Parent/Teacher conferences and working with teachers to help our children grow
 - Encouraging a consistent time and place for study at home
 - Communicating with teachers and support staff about student/home concerns which might impact academic performance
 - Encouraging our children to take full advantage of the educational program
 - Using established procedures to discuss issues and solve conflicts in the school community.
